

Introduction

This guide should tell you all you need to know. Please do read it, it contains information that will help to keep you and everyone else at the club safe.

Anyone going onto the field must be a fully paid up member of YGSD Training. New members will need to download, print and complete an application form, These are available on the website <https://www.ygsdtraining.co.uk> on the main page in the 2021 membership and training fees section. We will have blank copies at the club but would really like to avoid handling them. You will need to bring your own pen if you want to complete a form at the club. We strongly advise you to pre-complete your form as completing one on the day will severely reduce the amount of time you spend training.

New members would need to pay the membership per person wishing to train plus the training fee to cover the first 6 weeks. The cash should be placed with the membership form inside a sealed envelope with your name and your dog's name clearly marked on the front. Should new members wish to pay via BACS please e-mail secretary@ygsdtraining.co.uk to make arrangements. At the moment this option is only open to new joiners due to the complexity of tracking payments.

Who can attend?

- Any paid up member of YGSD Training.
- You cannot attend if any of the following apply:
 - You believe that you may be infected with COVID -19, even if you are not experiencing any symptoms.
 - You have any symptoms of COVID-19.
 - A member of your household may have been infected with COVID -19.
 - You live in a postcode area that has been subjected to local lockdown restrictions that do not allow you to travel or take part in this kind of activity.

Anyone wishing to train will be required to read and sign a disclaimer. If you do not bring a pre-signed disclaimer please bring your own pen. We will not be providing them.

Payments

You will still be able to pay using cash. We ask that you place the exact amount of money in a sealed envelope with the date, your name and your dog's name clearly marked on the front. We will provide a suitable box in which to place the envelopes. We will be taking a register so will know who has been on the field. Anyone found to be freeloading will be made to buy the drinks at the Xmas party!

Training Times

Please note the usual times have been adjusted slightly. We will look at increasing class length once we get a feel for how long it actually takes to change over. If you all leave and arrive as efficiently as possible and don't hang around we'll be able to tweak the timings in the future and hopefully offer longer classes.

Please be on time. Late arrivals are disruptive and will not be allowed onto the field once classes are underway.

New members, you are to come to session 1 with Gerard (he'll have plenty of help).

YGSD Training Policy on Managing Social Distancing Whilst Training

- Class times are to be staggered with a 20 minute changeover period to allow members from the first class to leave before the members from the second class arrive.
- Members will be told what time to arrive at, they should not arrive early or late. They must then remain in their cars until invited onto the field.
- All dogs are to be kept apart and should not be allowed to come into contact with each other.
- Social distancing guidelines are to be followed at all times.
- No one is to come into contact with any dog other than their own.
- One person shall have responsibility to invite people onto the training field. The class furthest from the gate will be brought on first and so on. Classes will leave the field only when told and in reverse order.
- Upon leaving the field members must go straight to their cars and leave the club.
- Only those people that are training a dog are to attend the club. Family and friends will not be permitted to attend. The only exception is where the person handling the dog cannot drive and relies on another person to get to the club. These people are to be reminded that they must follow government advice on sharing cars. In these instances those not training must remain inside their vehicles.
- No one will be allowed to arrive early, park their car to go off elsewhere to exercise their dogs.
- No equipment is to be shared by members. Any club equipment used is only to be handled by the instructor. Members should be provided with a list of things to bring to the club.
- By attending training a person accepts that they shall be bound by any rules/guidelines that the club sees fit to apply. Any person not following these rules/guidelines will be given a polite reminder and asked to follow the rules. Should a person continue to fail to follow the rules an instructor or committee member will have the authority to ask them to leave.
